GRADY BOSWELL ENTERTAINED BY Y.M.C.A AT BREST

Son of Popular Conductor Well Known in Columbus Entertained in France on Signing of Armistice.

How many drinks had you?

Fort McPherson, Ga., Jan. 30.—Private Grady Boswell of the 116th infantry regiment, well known in both Atlanta and Columbus, Ga., is the son of D. E. Boswell, the latter for years past a conductor on the Southern railroad with a run between Atlanta and Columbus; is now at Fort McPherson awaiting his discharge from the service, having recently been transferred there from overseas.

Private Boswell is one of five sons of the veteran conductor who entered Uncle Sam's service during the course of the recent war. He was wounded in action overseas and is now under treatment at the army base hospital.

In addition to himself, there are Charles and T. J. Boswell, both in the navy; Dan, who saw service on the border and later died of influenza in a camp on this side, and Henry Boswell, also in the army, who is still in France with the expeditionary forces.

The latter named brother is a member of the old Georgia field artillery regiment that was incorporated in the Dixie division at its creation. With Grady in the infantry section of the same dvision, the two brothers went through some of the most thrilling and fierce fighting on record in the recent war.

Private Boswell stated at Fort McPherson that he was in Brest when the armistice was signed. He tells of many interesting incidents that occurred during the great celebration in honor of the occasion. He praises the work of the Y. M. C. A. at all times.

"There was naturally a momentary waning of enthusiasm for drill and work and a desire on the part of all the men to get out and help to celebrate," he said. "In the great times that followed, the service organizations and particularly the Y. M. C. A. treated the men royally, putting on special entertainments for them anl doing a thousand little things to make their happiness over the end of the war full and complete.

Free distribution of tobacco, chocolate, cookies and other canteen supplies by the Y. M. C. A. overseas among our American soldiers and sailors to a value of $1,400,000 is reported by William Sloan, chairman of its national war work council. Less on operator of the post exchange or canteen in France alone up to November 1, 1919, amounted to $332,-181.

"I regard the work that the 'Y' has done overseas as the greatest on record anywhere in its line," he added. "I cannot say too much for the organization for the splendid results that it accomplished among the men in khaki."

PETITION FOR CHARTER

GEORGIA, MUSCOGEE COUNTY.

To the Superior Court of said County:

The petition of J. B. Knight, Jr. and Arthur J. Klingon, both of said state and county, respectfully shows:

I.

That they desire for themselves, their associates, successors and assigns, to become incorporated under the name and style of "Citizens Loan Company" for a period of twenty years, with the privilege of renewal at the expiration of that time.

II.

The principal office and place of business of the said corporation will be in the city of Columbus, said state and county, but the petitioners desire the right to establish branch offices at other places in said state and in other states.

III.

The capital stock of said corporation is to be ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00), divided into shares of one hundred ($100.00) dollars each. Petitioners, however, ask the privilege of increasing said capital stock from time to time to an amount not to exceed one hundred thousand ($100,000.00) dollars and likewise to decrease the said capital stock from time to time but never below the sum of ten thousand ($10,000.00) dollars. Petitioners show that one thousand ($1,000.00) of the amount of capital to be employed by them, has been actually paid in.

IV.

The object of the proposed corporation is pecuniary gain to itself and to its stockholders.

V.

Petitioners show that the business said corporation proposes to carry on is that of:

(1) Buying, owning, selling, dealing and trading in real estate.

(2) Lending money on real estate and taking security therefor by security deeds, mortgages, debentures, bonds and such other evidences of indebtedness and security as are desirable.

(3) Lending money on personal property and taking such security as may be desirable, such as mortgages, bills of sale, and other evidences of indebtedness.

Petitioners further show that they desire the right of securing such indebtedness as such corporation may owe by the execution of notes, debentures, security deeds, bonds and other evidences of indebtedness.

Wherefore petitioners pray to be made a body corporate under the name and style aforesaid with all rights, priviliges and immunities as are allowed to corporations of like kind under the laws of the state of Georgia and subject to all liabilities fixed by the laws of the state of Georgia.

Free and Accepted Masons

Manchester, Ga.

United States of America

Aug. 1st 1918.

Dear Sir and Brother:

We present herewith Bro. Dan M. Boswell as a Master Mason and worthy member of this Lodge. We recommend him to the brotherly love and care of any Mason who may find him in distress or need incident to his service as a member of the United States Expeditionary Forces. Any courtesy extended to our Brother will be deeply appreciated.

Nous, les membres de la loge susdite, certifions que le porteur de la présente M. Dan M. Boswell est maître franc-maçon et digne membre de cette loge. Comme il fait partie de l'armée expéditionnaire envoyée par le Etats Unis de America et de ses alliés, nous le recommandons particulièrement à l'accueil amical et à l'affection fraternelle de tous les franc-maçons, surtout au cas où il se trouverait dénué de la protection, des secours, enfin des attentions que doivent inspirer des sentiments d'humanité. Nous serons infiniment reconnaissants de tous les bons services qu'on voudra rendre à notre cher frère.

Caro Fratello:—Questa Loggia di Liberi ed Accettati Massoni, presenta il fratello Dan M. Boswell, Maestro Libero Muratore, e degno membro d'essa. Noi lo raccomandiamo a quell'amore fraterno e all'appoggio di qual'unque Massone che lo potra' trovare bisognoso di soccorso, mentre e' in servizio come membro delle Forze Spedizionarie dei Stati Uniti d' America. Qual'unque cortesia esteso al nostro fratello, sara' molta apprezzata.

Lieber Herr und Bruder!

Wir stellen hiermit Bruder Dan M. Boswell als Meistermaurer und wertes Mitglied dieser Loge vor. Wir empfehlen ihn der brüderlichen Liebe und Fürsorge jedes Freimaurers an, der ihn in solcher Not treffen sollte als aus seinem Dienst als Mitglied der Vereinigte Staaten überseeischen Streitkräfte enstehen dürfte. Jede unserm Bruder erzeigte Höflichkeit wird von uns mit tiefer Dankbarkeit aufgenommen werden.

MILNER FAMILY GRAVES

Mr. Homer C. Cooper, 145 Pendleton Drive, Athens, Ga. 30601 has contributed the inscriptions of tombstones found in two Milner cemeteries, together with more data on APSILLA or APSYLLA HOLMES MILNER. He noted that although the tombstone and her will spell her name Apsylla, the obituary and the family Bible record the spelling Apsilla.

Following the death of her husband PITT MILNER in 1839 in Monroe Co.,Ga. (now Lamar), Apsilla Holmes Milner moved to Henry County, Ga. to live with her daughter PENELOPE MILNER, wife of PARKER EASON (1798-1875). Mr. Cooper wondered why no gravestone for Penelope M. Eason was found beside the gravestone of Parker Eason. Does anyone know? Did Penelope survive her husband and move elsewhere, where she died?

Mr. Cooper transcribed the inscription of the Pitt Milner stone June 22, 1969, and Mr. John Holmes Milner transcribed the stones in the Eason cemetery in 1965. A report made by relatives at the Milner reunion told that the marker for Apsilla Milner was missing from the cemetery in 1969, and the lot was covered by brush. Because family graveyards are usually hard to find, we are including the map locations as a permanent record, to enable others to locate these graveyards in the future.

Dear Mrs. Jordan:

Received your letter of 10 October just yesterday --guess it was held up because no zip code on it. Anyway, I have reproduced a copy of the pages of my records that bear the names of RITCH and SNELLINGS. The "RITCH" cemetery is known as cemetery 9, and the SNELLINGS cemetery is known as cemetery 10.

Yes, by all means, you may visit the gravesites at any time you choose. The only requirement is that you clear with Range Division so that you do not enter an area where live firing is being conducted. To clear, you can report to Building 215 and ask to see the clearance map. Someone there will advise you when to enter the areas.

Please keep both my home telephone number (564-7030 -- just in case you arrive on a weekend) and my office telephone number (545-7533 -- where I can be reached during normal duty hours) for contact when you arrive. I will be delighted at any time to come help you locate the gravesites. If I can help you in any way, please feel free to call on me.

Sincerely,

Elsie W. Hight

THE BOSWELL STORY

Into an America of only thirteen million people compared with one hundred fifty million today, when Andrew Jackson was President, the South was a slave-holding oligarchy, Texas still belonged to Mexico, the Great West was a wilderness and the industrial revolution had yet to penetrate what was still an agricultural nation; into an America with only twenty-three miles of railroad, William Boswell was born April 16, 1834, in Harris County, Georgia. He was the son of George and Carolyn Bates Boswell. His sisters were Fanny, Matt, Jane and Becky. His brothers were John and Jimmie.

At the age of twenty-two on November 16, 1856, Bill Boswell was married to Missouria McColl~~ough~~ochs. To this union was born seven children. The three born before McCullohs the Civil War were:

William Brantley Boswell, August 31, 1857
Infant daughter who died at birth, 1859
Mary Susan Boswell, January 4, 1861

On July 4th of 1861, when Mary Susan was six months old and William Brantley was four, William Boswell at the age of twenty-seven, enlisted in the Confederate Army under Captain William McColl~~ough,~~ochs his brother-in-law, and served until 1865.

Abraham Lincoln had taken office as President of the United States in January of 1861, but the thirty-four states were far from "united." On both sides, there was the usual belief entertained at the beginning of all great wars that it would be "short."

William Boswell was in the 35th Georgia Regiment, Company K, Thomas' Brigade, Hills' Division, Stonewall Jackson's Corps. He was in the first battle at Mine Run, Virginia, and from there fought in many, many battles, among them the battle of Manassas, Virginia. Although this battle was considered a disgraceful disaster for the North, the Yankees pulled themselves together with a grim determination which they had not felt before, whereas the Southerners were misled into believing that they could relax their efforts and that the war was practically won. This was a mistaken idea, however, and four years of bitter struggle ensued. Bill Boswell fought at Chanselorsville, Frederick, Harper's Ferry, Virginia, The Wilderness, Gettysburg and many, many other places. Chanselorsville, Virginia was the scene of a three days' Battle which forced the Union forces back across the river with a severe loss of over 17,000 men. It might have been a complete rout had not the Confederates suffered one of the heaviest possible strokes in the wounding of Stonewall Jackson the first evening of the fight.

The General with a small party had got in front of his own lines. On galloping back in the dark, he and his escort were mistaken for Federals and were fired on by their own men. Jackson died eight days later of pneumonia.

Matters went from bad to worse and after Bill Boswell spent some time in the hospital in Virginia recovering from wounds suffered in the Battle of South Ann and the Battle of Gettysburg, he recovered and returned to battle to do last picket duty for General Robert E. Lee's army near Farmersville, Virginia, on the night of April 8, 1865. The Southern army was melting rapidly by desertions and on April 9, 1865, Lee asked for a meeting with Grant at Appomattox Court House. The Confederate troops were to be released on parole after the surrender and were allowed to keep their own horses. Rations were supplied them since many were without food for days. Lee rode back to his own lines after the surrender and scarcely able to speak for feeling, he could only say to his veterans, "We have fought through the war together. I have done the best I could for you. My heart is too full to say more." In the course of a few weeks, the other armies had also surrendered and the trial by combat had ended.

William Boswell returned to his wife and two children to attempt to resume normal living and to attend to his farm. Mary Susan was about five years old now, and Grandmother and Grandfather McCollough, with whom Bill's wife and children had lived while he was at war, asked that she be allowed to stay with them, since they lived near the Boswell farm. Later:

Daniel Evans Boswell was born March 23, 1866
Caroline Amanda Boswell was born April 4, 1868
Fannie Maude Boswell was born June 24, 1870
Fletcher Missouria Boswell was born September 2, 1872

On March 13, 1870, Bill and his wife went to visit her mother about a mile from their home one Sunday afternoon and left Brantley who by now was twelve years old, at home and gave him the keys to the house. This was after slavery days and everything had to be locked. An eighteen year old Negro boy was at the home as he worked for Bill. When Bill and Missouria returned home and called for Brantley, he did not answer. Missouria said, "I'll gather the eggs while you look for him." On going into the henhouse, she saw Brantley lying on the floor dead. The Negro boy had shot him while Brantley was playing his flute on top of the henhouse. The Negro was later captured and given a life sentence in the penetentiary.

If the Civil War had brought its hardships to Bill Boswell, he was yet to face more, for on July 9, 1874, Missouria died leaving him with five children from two to thirteen years old. With the help of kind friends, among them Rebecca Jane Randall

The General with a small party and got in front of his own lines, on galloping back in the dark, he and his escort were mistaken for Yankees and were fired on by their own men. Jackson died eight days later of pneumonia.

Pickett went from Lee to Longstreet and after Bill Roswell spent some time in the hospital in Virginia recovering from wounds received in the Battle of Gettysburg, Longstreet and returned to battle to do last picket duty for General Robert E. Lee's army near Appomattox, Virginia, on the morning of April 8, 1865. The Southern army was moving rapidly by Appomattox and on April 9, 1865, Lee asked for a meeting with Grant at Appomattox Court House. The Confederate troops were to be paroled, in order after the surrender and were allowed to keep their own horses. Rations were supplied from whose army were almost food for days. Lee rode back to his own lines after the surrender and accordingly began to speak for feeling, he could only say, "I am a veteran. We have fought through the war together. I have done the best I could for you. My heart is too full to say more." In the dumps of a few weeks, the other armies had also surrendered and the trial by combat had ended.

William Roswell returned to his wife and the children to attempt to resume normal living and to attend to his farm. Mary Ellen was about five years old now, and Gwendolyn and Grace were "Virginia", with whom Bill's wife and children had lived while he was at war. Asked that she be allowed to stay with them, since they lived near the Roswell farm. Later:

Gertrude Irene Roswell was born March 25, 1866
Caroline Amanda Roswell was born April 4, 1868
Maude Roswell was born June 29, 1870
Mother Miranda Roswell was born September 5, 1872

On March 12, 1870, Bill and his wife went to visit her sister, Amanda Mills from their home on Sunday afternoon and left Virginia, who now was twelve years old, at home and Bill's wife left the keys to the house. This was after always days and everything had to go through Virginia. An eighteen year old Negro boy was at the home as he worked for Bill. When Bill and Miranda returned home and called for Virginia, he did not answer. Miranda said, "I'll washer the face and I'll look for her." On going into the bedroom, she found Virginia lying on the floor dead. The Negro boy had shot him while Virginia was playing his fiddle on top of the bedroom. The Negro was later captured and given a life sentence in the penitentiary.

At the Civil War had brought Bill Sandridge to Bill Roswell. He was 20 to 22 years. For on July 9, 1870, Miranda died leaving six girls, five and three, from two to fifteen years old. With the help of kind friends, among them Rebecca Jane Randall Morgan, Mr. Boswell was able to care for the children until December 2, 1874, when he and Rebecca were married. Rebecca was thirty years old when she married Mr. Boswell and had done dressmaking extensively. Those of us who remember her must assume that - although she was at an age to be considered an "old maid" - it was no doubt by choice - for she was a handsome, if determined, person. At any rate, she became a good mother for the five children: Susie, Dan, Carrie, Maude and Fletcher. Five children were born to Becky and Bill in Harris County, Georgia.

George Samual Boswell born September 22, 1875
John William Boswell born August 27, 1877
Morgan Wilborn Boswell born October 15, 1879
Harriet Rebecca Boswell born May 17, 1881
Mattie Kate Boswell born August 21, 1883

The years were hard immediately after the Civil War and more and more of Bill's friends were migrating to Texas, railroads having been built toward the west by now. He and Becky decided to take all of the children, except eighteen-year old Carrie who had married Bill Reedy November 5, 1885, and twenty-five year old Susie who lived with the McCollughs, and move to Texas. There it seemed the opportunity was greater to support his large family.

In December 1886, therefore, William and Rebecca with their eight children, one nephew - Dick Boswell- one grandnephew - Dick's son - (Jim, three years old) left Harris County, Georgia, for Mansfield, Texas. The trip was made by train which was fired and heated with coal. Everything was black with coal smoke. The trip took about three days and nights on the road. With a crowd of this size, many things were bound to happen. Baskets of food had to be carried for this large family. At Little Rock, Arkansas, the train had to lay over for a few hours. As they were getting off the train onto the platform at the depot, John Will Boswell who was nine missed the platform at the depot and down he went. George who was eleven followed him, and when Mrs. Boswell got them out from under the dirty platform, they were black from head to toe. Mrs. Boswell was inclined to be a pretty proud woman and wanted her children to always look spic and span. She got them inside the depot and cleaned them thoroughly, but by this time everybody was hungry and all the food which had been brought in the baskets was eaten. Mr. Boswell sent the oldest boy, Dan, who was twenty, to see if he could find anything to buy to eat. He came back with a baked duck! After they had eaten, Mrs. Boswell put them all to bed on the depot floor on pallets. When the train caller announced the train would leave, Mrs. Boswell and her eight children, with the others, were ready with each face washed and her own hair combed and neat. Apparently, the only running water was in the horse troughs in front of the station so to accomplish this gracefully was not as easy as it might seem. It is said that Fletcher with her fourteen-year old plumpish figure covered in coal smoke could have won no beauty contest. The boys all wore short white pants. Among other things to make the trip memorable was five-year old Hattie's inability to trainride without being sick all the way from Georgia to Texas.

On a Christmas Eve like no other, December 24, 1886, the family arrived at Mansfield, Texas. There to meet the train were the long-time friends of William's. The Smiths, the Helms, the Hamils, the Pritchards and the Williams had all come to Texas ahead of the Boswells. Believe it or not, every child had his or her stockings filled with goodies from Santa Claus that night, due to the kindness of those friends. After a few days of resting, Bill Boswell started the search for a home for his family. With the aid of his friend, George Hamil, who had fought side-by-side with him under General Lee, Bill rented the John Boydsten farm at Mansfield adjoining the Hamil farm. Mr. Boydsten was a bachelor and wished to retain part of the house and since Mr. and Mrs. Boswell and their eight children made ten, that was eleven people in this small three-room house. All the belongings Bill and Becky Boswell could bring had been packed in trunks and shipped, so there was very little furniture. Not enough bedsteads were available, so Mrs. Boswell unpacked the bedding, etc., and used the trunks to sleep on. There were still not enough mattresses, so Mr. Boydsten, who had gunny sacks full of wheat in one of the three rooms, put the trunks in this room and used the sacked wheat for mattresses and all the men and boys slept in that room. In the other room, Mr. and Mrs. Boswell, Katie, Hattie, Maude and Fletcher slept. Mr. Boydsten was very generous with his possessions and he had a lot full of Texas Longhorn cows, a yard full of chickens and said, "Help yourself, they are all yours." Mrs. Boswell found the water too hard to use for washing clothes and soft water had to be hauled from a spring on Mountain Creek, about six or seven miles away. She often wondered how any man could love a woman and bring her to Texas to live. Also, Maude and Fletcher, who were sixteen and fourteen years of age, were learning what it was to milk a Texas Longhorn that had never seen a woman before. Mr. Boydsten tied the cows to the fence so that the girls could milk them.

One year later, Mr. Boswell moved his family to the L. H. Stevens place which had six large rooms. Dan, who was twenty-one by now, went back to Georgia and married Nonnie ~~Rich~~ on Ritch October 16, 1887, bringing her back to the Boydsten Place where he and Nonnie lived for two years.

Shortly after Bill and Becky moved to the Stevens Place there were days and days of rain. Fletcher and Maude had to milk about ten or twelve cows and had to wear the boys' rubber boots to get into the lot, which was black mud. The girls would say some ugly words when they would get a bad cow that would not be still long enough to be milked. They would lose their boots plumpish figure covered in coal smoke could have won no beauty contest. The boys all were about white paints. Among other things to make the trip memorable was five-year old Bettie's inability to tolerate the trip without being sick all the way from Georgia to Texas.

On a Christmas Eve like no other, December 24, 1920, the family arrived at Marfield, Texas. There to meet the train were the long-time friends of William's. The Smiths, the Dorns, the Hendrix, the Pritchards and the Williams had all come to Texas ahead of the Boswells. Believe it or not, every child had his own bed, stockings filled with goodies from Santa Claus that night, due to the kindness of those friends. After a few days of resting, Will Boswell started the search for a home for his family with the aid of his friend, George Hamil, who had fought side-by-side with him under General Lee. Hamil rented the John Boydston farm at Marfield adjoining the Hamil farm. Mr. Boydston was a bachelor and wished to retain part of the house and garden. So Mr. and Mrs. Boswell and their eldest children made do, that was eleven people in this small three-room house. All the belongings Will and Dorey Boswell could bring had been packed in trunks and shipped, so there was very little furniture. Not enough bedsteads were available, so the Boswell unpacked the bedding, etc., and used the trunks as sleep on. There were still not enough mattresses, so Mr. Boydston, who had grown sacks full of wheat in one of the three-rooms, put the trunks in this room and used the sacked wheat for mattresses and all the men and boys slept in that room. In the other room, Mr. and Mrs. Boswell, Katie, Bettie, Mamie and Fletcher slept. Mr. Boydston was very generous with his possessions and he had a lot full of Texas longhorn cows, a yard full of chickens and ducks. "Why yourself, they are all yours." Mrs. Boswell found the water too hard to use for washing clothes and soft water had to be hauled from a spring on Mountain Creek, about six or seven miles away. She often wondered how any man could love a woman, and bring her to Texas to live. Also, Maude and Fletcher, who were sixteen and fourteen years of age, were learning what it was to milk a Texas longhorn that had never seen a woman before. Mr. Boydston tied the cows to the fence so that the girls could milk them.

One year later, Mr. Boswell moved his family to the I. H. Strange place which had six large rooms. Dan, who was twenty-one by now, went off to Georgia and married Nonie Nick on October 16, 1927, bringing her back to the Boyston Place where he and Nonie lived for two years.

Eventually Effie Bill and Dorey moved to the Stevens Place where there were days and days of rain. Fletcher and Maude had to milk about ten or twelve cows and had to wear the boys' rubber boots to get into the lot, which was black mud. The girls would say some very mean words when they would get a bad cow that would not be still long enough to be milked. They would lose their boots trying to halt the cow. Fletcher fell in the mud and Mr. Boswell would then hear his daughters saying things that would not do to print. Maude threatened to go to Fort Worth and swear that Texas had the meanest cows on earth.

The Boswell family lived at this place for three years and Maude was married at the age of eighteen to John Marion Blanks on October 25, 1888. He was an "older" man of twenty-six whom she met in Mansfield. They were married early in the morning and caught the one and only train to Fort Worth to make their home. Mr. Blanks was born near Montgomery, Alabama, March 12, 1862.

Susie, who had remained in Georgia, was married December 16, 1891 to C. H. King. Fletcher was married August 20, 1893, to George Hamil, Jr., son of Bill's old friend and neighbor. George S. Boswell and Ella Wilson were married November 27, 1898. Hattie R. Boswell and Samuel Edwards Balch were married December 2, 1900. Morgan W. Boswell and Della McDonald were married November 10, 1901. Mattie Kate Boswell and Hezekiah B. Balch were married April 20, 1902.

The first death of the children of Bill Boswell who reached maturity was that of Carrie Boswell Reedy, who died in Mansfield, Texas, March 10, 1895, at the age of twenty-seven, leaving her husband, Bill, and five little girls; Willie, Susie, Berta, Rosa, and Carrie.

John Will Boswell, at the age of forty-two, died of a heart attack in Mansfield, Texas, leaving his wife, Thena, with two young boys, Clyde and Ray. Dan Boswell and Susie Boswell King died in Georgia. George S. Boswell died in Fort Worth, Texas, July 20, 1953.

On the birthdate of a famous American, February 22, William Boswell, a beloved husband and father, died in Mansfield, Texas, in the year 1906 at the age of seventy-two. He was a great man, a great American.

trying to milk the cow. Fletcher fell in the mud and Mr. Boswell would then hear his daughters saying things that would not do to print. Maude threatened to go to Fort Worth and swear that Texas had the meanest cows on earth.

The Boswell family lived at this place for three years and Maude was married at the age of eighteen to John Martin Blake on October 25, 1894. He was an "older" man of twenty-six when he met in Mineralwells. They were married early in the morning and caught the one and only train to Fort Worth to make their home. Mr. Blake was born near Montgomery, Alabama, March 12, 1862.

Susie, who had graduated in Georgia, was married December 16 1891 to C. H. King. Fletcher was married August 20, 1901, to George Hamil, Jr., son of Willis and Friend and neighbor. George Z. Boswell and Ella Wilson were married November 27, 1898. Rosalie R. Boswell and Samuel Edwards Smith were married December 2, 1900. Morgan W. Boswell and Delia McDonald were married November 10, 1901. Mattie Kate Boswell and Brewster B. Smith were married April 20, 1902.

The first baby of the children of Will Boswell was Fredonia Martin, the daughter of Dorrie Boswell Hamil, who died in Mineralwells, Texas, March 10, 1895, at the age of twenty-seven, leaving her husband, Will, and five little girls Willie, Susie, Doris, Rosalie and Orrie.

John Will Boswell, at the age of forty-two, died of a heart attack in Mineralwells, Texas, leaving his wife, Dorrie, with two young boys, Clyde and Ray. Dan Boswell and Sarah Bodwell died in Georgia. George S. Boswell died in Fort Worth, Texas, July 20, 1921.

Of the brothers of a famous family, February 22, William Boswell, a beloved husband and father, died in Mineralwells, Texas, in his year 1925 at the age of seventy-two. He was a great man, a great American.

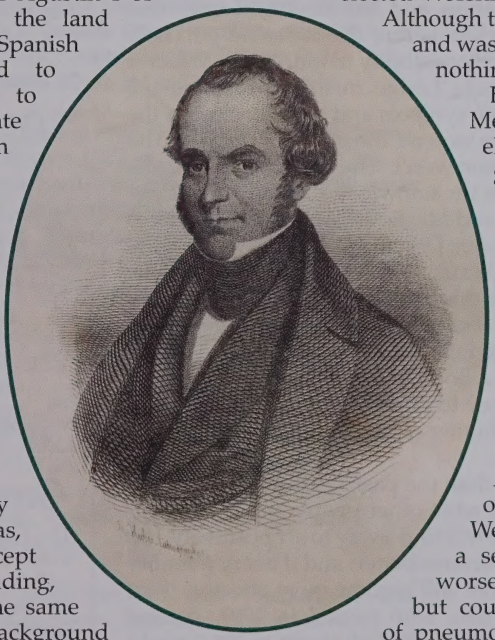
Stephen Fuller Austin

Freemason and Father of Texas

Stephen Fuller Austin (November 3, 1793 – December 27, 1836), known as the "Father of Texas", led the second and ultimately successful colonization of the region of northern Mexico known as Bexar in the state of Coahuila y Tejas. Austin was made a Master Mason in Louisiana Lodge No. 109 in St. Genevieve, Louisiana, in June of 1815. From the time he first entered Mexico City in 1822 to renew his father's land grant in order to bring families to Texas, until his death in 1836, his efforts and adventures are constantly mingled with the efforts and adventures of fellow Master Masons in Texas.

Austin's plans for a colony in Texas halted when Mexico gained independence from Spain in 1821. He was informed that the junta instituyente, the new congress of the government of Agustín I of Mexico, refused to recognize the land grant made to his father by the Spanish government. Austin traveled to Mexico City and managed to persuade the junta instituyente to authorize the grant given to his father, which would, in turn, permit immigration plans by Emprasario Austin to continue.



By late 1825, Austin had brought the first 300 families, now known in Texas history as the Old Three Hundred, to the land grant originally given to his father. Of the original 300 families, 39 of them are known to have been headed by Master Masons.

In contrast to the many ruffians who later came to Texas, Austin made every effort to accept only colonists who were law abiding, and of sterling character. In the same manner that a lodge requires background information on members, Austin required the colonists to bring with them documents that attested to their good character. Although he had effective civil and military authority over the settlers, he was quick to introduce a semblance of American law, and the Constitution of Coahuila y Tejas was agreed upon in November 1827. To uphold law and order and protect the colonists, Austin organized small armed groups that came to be known as the Texas Rangers.

Despite his hopes, Austin was making little money from his endeavors. The colonists were unwilling to pay for his services as emprasario, and most of the money gained was spent on the processes of government and public services.

It was during these years that Austin sought to establish Freemasonry in Texas. Freemasonry was well established and accepted among the educated classes of Mexican society, and many of the men coming into Texas were Masons. It should be noted that the (American) Anti-Masonic political party was formed in 1826, and skepticism about Masonry was widespread in the United States at that time. It is the author's belief that this led to the immigration of many Masons into Texas.

On February 11, 1828, Austin called a meeting of Freemasons at San Felipe for the purpose of electing officers and petitioning the Masonic Grand Lodge in Mexico City for a charter to form a lodge. Austin was elected Worshipful Master of the new lodge. Although the petition reached Matamoros, and was to be forwarded to Mexico City, nothing more was heard of it.

By 1828, the ruling faction in Mexico was afraid that the liberal elements in Texas might try to gain their independence. Fully aware of the political philosophies of American Freemasons, the Mexican government outlawed Freemasonry on October 25, 1828. In 1829, Austin called another meeting where it was decided that it was "impolitic and imprudent, at this time, to form Masonic lodges in Texas."

In December of 1836, Austin was in the new capital of Columbia (now known as West Columbia) where he caught a severe cold, and his condition worsened. Doctors were called in, but could not help him. Austin died of pneumonia at noon on December 27, 1836, at the home of George B. McKinstry right outside of what is now West Columbia, Texas. Austin's last words were "The independence of Texas is recognized! Don't you see it in the papers?..." Upon hearing of Austin's death, Houston ordered an official statement proclaiming: "The Father of Texas is no more; the first pioneer of the wilderness has departed."

Message from the Grand Secretary...

Forging Better Masonry

The 172nd Grand Annual Communication culminated a superior year in Masonry. In 2007 the Fraternity focused on Masonic mentoring (bonding the candidate to the Lodge through education and brotherly care). The Craft concentrated on helping E.A. and F. C. Masons become Master Masons; creating a Masonic educated Lodge with interesting programs; embracing our family members and the local community and earning their respect for our Fraternity; and developing the leadership abilities of Lodge members). These actions paved the way for even better Masonry.

In 2008, Grand Master Tommy Griffin's motto "Masonry, a Texas Tradition" portends the use of education and history to strengthen the Craft even more. Under his guidance, the Texas Mason Magazine will emphasize Masonic education and the historical role that Freemasonry played in the development of the State and will help enhance the sense of pride and responsibility in individual Masons. The Grand Master will encourage Lodge members to learn the meanings of the various Masonic symbols and the wording in the esoteric work. Will our members expend the effort to do this? The answer is that some will and some won't. The objective is to make it interesting and easy to acquire the knowledge. Perhaps The Craft and Its Symbols, the book that Grand Master Griffin will send to new Master Masons that are raised after December 8, 2007, will inspire older members to study and discuss the ideas presented in the volume. [Note: Lodges can order this book from Macoy Publishers]. These young members will be asking interesting questions of the experienced members. By peaking our members' interest and curiosity, perhaps the Lodge as a Body will strive to strengthen its Masonic bonds and skills. The key to this transformation will be to tweak individual attitudes to a higher sense of responsibility and a greater thirst for knowledge.

Attitude is more important than the past, than education, than money, than circumstances, that what other people think or say or do. A person with a good attitude will find a way to act positively. His actions will motivate others to perform better; and if every member strengthens his attitude, the Lodge will become more effective. Past Grand Master Harry Cunningham, who passed in 2007, created a slogan that could inspire us today. His "Motivate in '98," could be paraphrased "Motivate in 2008" and help strengthen attitudes within all of our Lodge members.

Think about the way you and your Lodge approach Masonry. Strive to improve yourself and the reputation of your Lodge. Enhance your individual attitude and develop a positive approach to Lodge activities. Serve as the anvil to spark your Lodge into forging better Masonry.

Sincerely and Fraternally,

Tommy D. Guest

District Instructors Visit

The District Instructors of our various masonic districts throughout the state will be making an official visit to the lodges in their district this year as per Grand Master Griffin's Proclamation. We hope this will encourage the lodges to ask the DI for help in the future and make the lodges aware they are able and willing to help with the ritual at any time. The "ritual" separates us from many other fraternal organizations and we need to keep this in mind as we attempt to maintain it's integrity. Please attend your local lodge meeting, especially when the District Instructor is coming, and make him feel he is an important part of the district service team…and more especially, an important part of our fraternity!

Hello! I am new to this so bear with me. My name is Marjorie Lee Boswell Pierce.
I have been doing research on my Father's line for over 10 years and it seems that my Great-Great Grandfather, John Boswell, of New Kent County, Virginia was hatched, not born. Neither my Father, nor his sister who died last year knew anything about the family, nor did they seem to care. I am certainly hoping I can get some help through this network. Ok - here goes - brace yourself!!
My Father: Edward Bryan Boswell, born in New Kent County, Virginia, 16 April 1908. Married Margaret Ella Upshaw of Caroline County Virginia. He had one brother, Kenneth Seal Boswell and one sister, Urcelle Boswell, both of whom are dead. Urcelle never married, Kenneth never had children.) Daddy, Edward Bryan, married Margaret Ella Upshaw of Caroline County and they moved to Newport News, Virginia, where I was born. I have a brother, Edward Blair Boswell of Los Angeles, CA. My father is 89 yrs old and still living, as is my Mother.who is 94.
Edward Bryan Boswell was the son of Edward Pryor Boswell of New Kent County, Virginia. Edward Pryor was born 13 January 1872 and died 17 April 1948. He married Ida Columbia Cosby. He was a landowner, a timberman, a sawmill owner and a merchant. He had one brother, James Willis,who had one son who still lives in Cincinnati, Ohio and two sisters, Florence Lillian and Olive Irene.
There were two half brothers and sisters, John Randolph and Lucy Anne, his father having married twice.

Edward Pryor Boswell was the son of Edward Estridge Boswell of New Kent County and his second wife, Usebia Brooks Weaver. Edward Estridge married first Eliza Jones , whose parents were Randolph and Amy Jones, and John Randolph and Lucy Anne were his children he had by Eliza. Eliza died. He then married Usebia Brooks, who had been married to John D. Weaver and they had one son, John Jr. John Senior either died or disappeared. Edward Estridge Boswell served in the Confederacy, (I have copies of his papers) and when he died, my Father, Edward Bryan Boswell, was a little boy and was in the bed with him. I also have a picture of him.

Edward Estridge Boswell was born 23 September 1831, died 11 August 1921 and is buried in Good Hope Baptist Church cemetary, New Kent Virginia, as is Edward Pryor Boswell.
The children of Edward Estridge Boswell and Usebia Brooks Weaver are as follows:

Edward Pryor Boswell married Ida Columbia Cosby (my Grandmother and Grandfather
James Willis (who had a son still living in Cincinnati, Ohio, Willis)
Florence Lillian
Olive Irene

There were two children by Eliza, his first wife: Lucy Ann who married an Otey (Emma Stewart's grandmother), and

When I, Vivian Hill Jordan, first started collecting data on the Jordans and Boswells, it was to 'Little Cliffie' that I turned. She knew more about both familes that the rest of her siblings. She was the oldest in her family, (hence the name of Clifford, I guess, they wanted a boy! Her masculine first name was a great deal of trouble to her youngest son, Dan Boswell Jordan. My husband has told the story many times of having papers returned from some Army sergeant, saying 'We need your MOTHER'S first name and him writing back, THIS IS MY MOTHERS FIRST NAME!!!!!!)

I found litte to correct in her facts that she gave me, from her memory. Remember, this is GEORGIA, where the stories are told and retold so many times that the info gets passed on in a correct manner.

Notes for ENOCH POPE JORDAN:
The Masonic record of Enoch Pope Jordan, father of Dan Boswell Jordan is as follows from the files of the Grand Lodge of Georgia, sent to us on 3 May 1991.

He joined the Masonic order and was made a Master Mason on 26 Dec 1908. This was in Mount Hermon Lodge # 304 in Columbus, Muscogee Co., GA. He dimitted in 25 aug 1927

He joined Mount Olive Lodge #122 in Molena, Pike co., GA 16 Sep 1927.

His death date is recorded here as 18 Oct 1948.

Enoch Pope Jordan served as Master of Mount Olive Lodge 7 straight years, from 1928 thru 1934. Then again in 1942 thru 1945. (This was a small Lodge in a very small community.).

When I (vhj) came into the Jordan family in 1945, Daddy Enoch had already been ill for some time. In fact that was why they couldn't come to our wedding in Houston, TX. She wouldn't leave him. Also, Dan wanted his brother to be his best man, but Enoch, Jr. was expecting his 2nd child any minute, and he wouldn't leave his wife. At that time, I believe they were in ILL.

Children of CLIFFORD BOSWELL and ENOCH JORDAN are:

i. GORDON KENDALL[5] JORDAN, b. 23 September 1910.
ii. ENOCH POPE JORDAN , JR., b. 12 May 1912, Columbus, Muscogee, GA; d. 10 June 1960, San Mateo, CA; m. ALIDA BARTLETT, 14 June 1936, Molena, Pike, GA.
iii. DAN BOSWELL JORDAN, b. 04 April 1918, Bullockville, Meriwether, GA(Warm Spgs); m. VIVIAN MAE HILL, 10 November 1945, Palmer Mem. Methodist Chu.,Houston,TX.
iv. POLLY JORDAN, b. 19 September 1920, Molena, Pike, GA[6]; m. LONNIE L. TREXLER , JR., 24 May 1945, West Point, Troup, GA.

Notes for POLLY JORDAN:
Polly, who is still alive at this writing, Dec 1997, gave all the vital statistics for herself and husband. They never had children. Unfortunately, she lost 2 or three children, the first 3 or 4 months after conception. Lonnie worked for the Coats and Clark Dye people as a chemist for many years and retired from this position. Polly taught in a vocational school in Toccoa for many years. She and Lonnie are well known in that area, very active in their Methodist Church. Lonnie has a large, large garden every year and Polly puts up the vegetables and they give away the rest.

5. CAROLYN HELEN[4] BOSWELL (NONA THOMAS[3] RITCH, JULIA A.[2] HARRIS, GRAY[1]) was born 23 September 1908, and died in Atlanta, Fulton, GA. She married LAMAR H. LINDSAY 08 June 1924 in Atlanta, Fulton, GA.

Child of CAROLYN BOSWELL and LAMAR LINDSAY is:

i. MARY CAROLYN[5] LINDSAY.

'Little Cliffie', as she was called, knew that she was not well and called her daughter, Polly, in Toccoa, GA. Polly and her husband, Lonnie Trexler, Jr. drove down and took her back to their home. They said that when they came into the house that evidently she had tried to open a can of coffee or dropped the canister, for there were grounds all over the kitchen floor. Probablly a stroke. We were all so glad that she had gone like she did, for like all of us, she dreaded being a burden to her children She is buried in Molena, Pike Co., GA., next to her beloved Enoch. The cemetery is across the street from their old home.

Emanuel Ritch 2x –
(Downloaded file)

Search for the Ancestors of Emanuel RITCH (1814-1884)

On 6 Dec 1847, David RITCH signed his Will in Muscogee Co GA. He is my gg grandfather. His wife's identity and the place and date of his birth are unknown to me. Based on both the 1850 Census and circumstantial evidence, I assume that some, if not all, of his children were born in what was then known as Mecklenburg Co NC. However, I have not proven a definite link between any specific NC Ritches and the David RITCH who died in Muscogee Co GA.

My g grandfather, Emanuel RITCH, was 33 when his father signed his Will. According to his Will, David RITCH'S sons were: William, J Jefferson, Edward, and Emanuel. Daughters were: Holly Cry [David Crye], Mary, Anna HELMS, and Hannah HEIGHT. Emanuel and David CRY [Crye] were the Executors. All children of David RITCH that I have found so far that are enumerated in the 1850 GA Census were born in NC.

In 1851, Emanuel Ritch was named the Executor of Timothy DUNNING'S Will and also named as guardian of Susan F. DUNNING, Timothy's youngest daughter. She is surely the Francis DUNNING who was four in the 1850 Census household of Timothy DUNNING. Timothy DUNNING was born about 1798 in SC. Susan Francis' mother was very likely Nancy C TINSLEY DUNNING. About 1851, William TINSLEY died at 89 years of age and left a Will in Muscogee Co GA. He named Nancy DUNNING, wife of Timothy DUNNING (deceased), as one of his daughters.

Of some interest is that one of Nancy TINSELY DUNNING'S sisters was married to George NEELY of SC. Documented below is the fact that a David RITCHEY bought and sold land in Mecklenburg Co NC with a Hugh NEELY.

Based on data taken from the 1850 Census and from the RITCH Cemetery (Muscogee Co GA), Emanuel was born 27 Jul 1814 in NC. He married Sarah Jane GILMORE who was born 11 Dec 1816 in Washington Co GA. The date and place of marriage are unknown to me. Their oldest known child was born in Muscogee Co GA on 6 Aug 1837.

I have not yet established the migration pattern of David RITCH and his family from NC to Muscogee Co GA. The 1840 Muscogee Co GA Census is the first GA Census that I have found that enumerates a David RITCH. And, of course, some of David RITCH'S children, relatives, and friends could have gone to GA earlier than he did.

The 1840 Muscogee Co GA Census shows Emanuel Rich (sic), David Rich (sic), and William Rich (sic) as Heads of Household and living next to each other. Next door (down the road) were Wm. Tinsley and Howell Hight (sic). Down the road the other way were Nat. Hight (sic) and Uriah Helms.

I am about to begin a comparison of NC, SC, and GA Census records that enumerate any RITCH or variation of the RITCH surname. Particular attention will be paid to the given names of David, Jefferson, William, James, John, Thomas, Edward, Jacob, or Edmond. These are the ones most likely to be ancestors or relatives of Emanuel RITCH.

Search for the Ancestors of Emanuel RITCH (1814-1884)

On 6 Dec 1847, David RITCH signed his Will in Muscogee Co GA. He is my gg grandfather. His wife's identity and the place and date of his birth are unknown to me. Based on both the 1850 Census and genealogical evidence, I assume that some, if not all, of his children were born in what was then known as Mecklenburg Co NC. However, I have not proven a definite link between any specific NC Ritchies and the David RITCH who died in Muscogee Co GA.

My g grandfather, Emanuel RITCH, was 33 when his father signed his Will. According to his Will, David RITCH'S sons were: William, Jefferson, Reuben, and Emanuel. Daughters were: Betty Ann [David Cary], Mary Ann [BEASLEY], and Hannah BRIGHT. Emanuel and David CARY [Cary] were the Executors. All children of David RITCH that I have found so far that are enumerated in the 1850 GA Census were born in NC.

In 1851, Emanuel Ritch was named the Executor of Timothy DUNNING'S Will and also named as Guardian of Susan F. DUNNING, Timothy's youngest daughter. She is nearly the Francis DUNNING who was five in the 1850 Census household of Timothy DUNNING. Timothy DUNNING was born about 1795 in SC. Susan Francis probably was very likely Nancy C TINSLEY DUNNING. About 1871, Nancy TINSLEY died at 89 years of age and left a Will in Muscogee Co GA. He named Nancy DUNNING, wife of Timothy DUNNING (deceased), as one of his daughters.

Of some interest is that one of Nancy TINSLEY DUNNING'S heirs was named to George NEELY of NC. Documents I have seen for this a David RITCHEY bought and sold land in Mecklenburg Co NC with a Hugh NEELY.

Based on data taken from the 1850 Census and from the RITCH Genealogy (Muscogee Co GA), Emanuel was born 27 Jul 1814 in NC. He married Sarah Jane QUMORE who was born 11 Dec 1816 in Washington Co GA. The date and place of marriage are unknown to me. Their oldest known child was born in Muscogee Co GA on 8 Aug 1837.

I have not yet found the exact or approximate ancestors of David RITCH and his family from NC to Muscogee Co GA. The 1840 Muscogee Co GA Census is the first GA Census that I have found that enumerates a David RITCH. And, of course, many of David RITCH'S children, relatives and friends could have gone to GA earlier than he did.

The 1860 Muscogee Co GA Census shows Emanuel Ritch (sic), David Ritch (sic), and William Ritch (sic) as Heads of Household and living next to each other. Next door (down the road) were Wm. Tinsley and Hewell Hight (sic). Down the road the other way were Nat. Hight (sic) and Uriah Helms.

I am about to begin a study of NC, SC, and GA Census records that enumerate any RITCH or variation of the RITCH surname. Particular attention will be paid to the given names of David, Jefferson, William, James, John, Thomas, Edward, Jacob, or Emanuel. These are the ones most likely to be ancestors or relatives of Emanuel RITCH.

After a preliminary review of early Mecklenburg and Anson Co NC land and Court records, I believe that Emanuel RITCH'S ancestors farmed various parcels of land located around what was then the Anson/Mecklenburg Co NC line in the area that is probably now part of Union Co NC. Their land was also near the SC line so I assume that some of Emanuel's ancestors owned land in SC.

Others that also moved to GA from NC and appear closely associated with Emanuel RITCH were the HELMS, CRY or CRYE, and BLOUNT or BLUNT families. Nancy BLUNT, 49 and born in NC, was living in Emanuel RITCH'S household in the 1850 Census. In the Upatoi District of Muscogee Co, several HELMS-households were neighbors of Emanuel RITCH and his presumed brother, Jefferson RITCH. Not far away, in Talbot Co GA, were two CRY households. Timothy DUNNING'S household was also close by in the Upatoi District.

In his 1787 Mecklenburg Co NC Will, "John RITCHIE Senior" (this is an exact quote from the original Will and John RITCHIE signed his own name) named David RITCHIE as one of his sons and the Executor of his Estate. Other sons were William and John. His wife was Jane and his daughter was Elizabeth. Because he should have been legally an adult in 1787, I assume that the David RITCHIE named in John RITCHIE, Sr's Will was born before 1767. He would have been at least 90 in 1847, which raises a reasonable doubt about some claims that this David Ritchie is the father of Emanuel Ritch.

In Feb 1837, a David RITCH, who I assume was my gg grandfather, sold three (3) parcels of land in Mecklenburg Co NC to Gilmore HELMS. I also assume that Gilmore HELMS was either a relative by marriage or the actual son-in-law of David RITCH. Other than the name being the same, this is the best evidence I have at present of a direct link between this David RITCH and my gg grandfather, David RITCH.

Also, in Jan 1805, a David RITCHEY sold a parcel of land in Mecklenburg Co NC to a Ruben BLUNT. Other official records also suggest a close association between the RITCHES and Ruben BLUNT or BLOUNT.

Between 1777 and 1837, an individual or, more likely, individuals named David RICH, RITCHEY, etc. bought and sold a number of parcels of land in Anson and Mecklenburg Co NC. These transactions are as follows:

1. July 1777, David RICH bought land in Anson Co NC from Dennis MCCLENDON.
2. May 1797, David and Jean RITCHEY sold land in Mecklenburg Co NC to Hugh NEELY. This was from John Cambell's Barony [?].
3. Sept 1797, David RITCHEY sold land in Mecklenburg Co NC to James KENEDY.
4. Oct 1797, David RITCHEY bought land in Mecklenburg Co NC from James RICH (RITCHEY).
5. May 1800, David RITCHEY bought land in Mecklenburg Co NC from Hugh NEELY. This was from John Cambell's Barony [?].
6. Jan 1805, David RITCHEY sold land in Mecklenburg Co NC to Ruben BLUNT.

After a preliminary review of early Mecklenburg and Anson Co NC land and Court records, I believe that Emanuel BITCHY's ancestors formed various parcels of land located around what was then the Anson/Mecklenburg Co NC line in the area that is probably now part of Union Co NC. Their land was also over the SC line so I assume that some of Emanuel's ancestors owned land in SC.

Others that also moved to Co from NC and appear closely associated with Emanuel BITCH were the HELANS, CRY or CRYS, and DUMMIT or BLUNT families. Henry DUNT, 49 and born in NC, was living in Emanuel BITCH's household in the 1850 Census. In the Union District of Mecklenburg Co, several HELANS, Dunmitts and Dunmitts were neighbors of Elias and BITCH and his presumed brother, Jackson BITCH. Not far away, in Union Co (?), were two CRY households. Finally DUNMITTS household was also close by in the Union District.

In his 1787 Mecklenburg Co NC Will, John BITCHER Senior (this is an exact quote from the original Will and John BITCHER signed his own name) named David BITCHER as one of his sons and the Executor of his Estate. Other sons were William and John. His wife was Jane and his daughter was Elizabeth. Because he should have been twenty-an adult in 1787, I assume that the David BITCHER named in John BITCHER, Sr's Will was born before 1767. He would have been at least 60 in 1827, which seems a reasonable age to assume that this David Bitcher is the father of Emanuel Bitch.

In Feb 1827, a David BITCH, who I assume was very probably, with three (3) parcels of land in Mecklenburg Co NC to Clemens HELANS. I also assume that Clemens HELANS was either a relative by marriage or the actual son-in-law of David BITCH. Other than the name being the same, this is the best evidence I have of a direct link between this David BITCH and my ggg grandfather, David BITCH.

Also, in Jan 1835, a David BITCHERY sold a parcel of land in Mecklenburg Co NC to a Ruben BURNEY. Other official records also suggest a close association between the BITCHER and Ruben BLUNT or BLOUNT.

Between 1777 and 1827, an individual or, more likely, individuals named David BITCHER, BITCHERY, etc. bought and sold a number of parcels of land in Anson and Mecklenburg Co NC. These transactions are as follows:

1. July 1777, David BITCH bought land in Anson Co NC from Dennis McCLENDON
2. May 1797, David and Ann BITCHERY sold land in Mecklenburg Co NC to Hugh NEELY. This was from John Cambell's Heirs [?]
3. Sept 1797, David BITCHERY sold land in Mecklenburg Co NC to James KENNEDY
4. Oct 1797, DAVID BITCHERY bought land in Mecklenburg Co NC from James RICH (BITCHERY).
5. May 1800, David BITCHERY bought land in Mecklenburg Co NC from Hugh NEELY. This was from John Cambell's Heirs [?]
6. Jan 1805, David BITCHERY sold land in Mecklenburg Co NC to Ruben BLUNT.

7. Nov 1808, David RITCHIE sold land in Anson Co NC to John HELMS.
8. July 1810, David RICHE (sic) received a land grant in Anson Co NC from the State of NC.
9. Aug 1810, David RICHEY (RICHE) sold land in Mecklenburg Co NC to Peter NEWEL.
10. Aug 1810, David RICHE sold land in Anson Co NC to John BYRD.
11. Feb 1837, David RITCH sold three (3) parcels of land in Mecklenburg Co NC to Gilmore HELMS.

The earliest land transaction that I have found involving a RITCH in either Anson or Mecklenburg Co NC was 1764 when Jacob RITCHEY bought land from Justina and Arthur DOBBS. However, a Courthouse fire in 1868 destroyed many Anson Co court records, and Mecklenburg Co was not created out of Anson Co until 1762.

I have not yet checked Bladen Co records out of which Anson Co was formed in 1750, but Bladen Co suffered losses of records in 1800 and again in 1893.

7. Nov 1808, David RITCHIE sold land in Anson Co NC to John HELAMS.
8. July 1810, David RICHIE (sic) received a land grant in Anson Co NC from the State of NC.
9. Aug 1810, David RICHIEY (RICHIE) sold land in Mecklenburg Co NC to Peter NEWEL.
10. Aug 1810, David RICHIE sold land in Anson Co NC to John BYRD.
11. Feb 1811, David RITCH sold three (3) parcels of land in Mecklenburg Co NC to Gideon HELAMS.

The earliest land transactions that I have found involving a RITCH in other Anson or Mecklenburg Co NC was 1794 when Jacob RITCHEY bought land from Austin and Arthur DOBBS.
However, a Countyhouse fire in 1808 destroyed most Anson Co court records, and Mecklenburg Co was not created out of Anson Co until 1762.

I have not yet checked Bladen Co records out of which Anson Co was formed in 1750, but Bladen Co suffered losses of records in 1800 and again in 1821.

Some updating April 30, 2001

My transcription of a 1890 letter from Belle RITCH, aged 17, to my grandmother Ida RITCH, aged 18, follows this Introduction. A copy of the original letter is also enclosed.

Because the original may be read, I felt free to add paragraph breaks and a few punctuation marks to my transcription. This makes for a more comfortable and enjoyable read. I also corrected some spelling errors if I was certain of the word that Belle meant. I did not correct grammatical errors, though there are very few.

Belle was quite articulate and well schooled. After all this is a quickly written letter by a "teenager" to her sister. Her sister, Ida, would have understood everything and known all of the people mentioned even though this is not true for us today.

The original of this letter is in very good condition considering that it is 110 years of age. It is written on a 10 x 151/2 inch sheet of lined tablet paper folded in half. All four of the resulting sides are used.

The script is very clear and legible, although there are a few places where it is difficult or impossible to decipher a word or meaning with certainty. These places of uncertainty are at the edges of the pages, in the folds of the paper, where the pen gave out of ink, where the pen dropped more ink than necessary, where Belle wrote over a word to correct it, and where Belle squeezed something in as an afterthought or when she was running out of room.

I came by this letter when my father, Jesse Beard "J. B." INGRAM died some 26 years ago, in 1974. My Aunt Catherine INGRAM BREWER STEWART, my First Cousin Jack THAMES, and I, Franklin Wade INGRAM, found this letter secured in an acid-free, paper photo cover along with a picture of my Aunt Clarabel INGRAM BINGHAM.

In addition to this letter, we found a number of old photos, greeting cards, news clippings, legal notices, and a 12-page letter from said Aunt Clarabel, dated Feb. 2, 1932. Most of these items were damaged from careless storage and from the soot that covered the inside of the school bus in which J. B. lived. The soot came from a wood burning "laundry" stove that J. B. used as a source of heat and for "cooking."

Catherine, Jack, and I put these materials, largely unexamined, in a cardboard box, and I brought them back to Raleigh, NC, with me. It was many months, maybe years, before I opened this box. Certainly, I did not open the box until well after Aunt Catherine's death. Regretfully so, because I never had the opportunity to review the contents with her.

Undoubtedly, Aunt Catherine would have known the identities of all of the people mentioned in this letter and would have known most, if not all, of the individuals in the photos.

1890 Letter from Julia Belle RITCH, Aged 17, to Her Sister Ida Blanche RITCH, Aged 18: Transcribed and Annotated by Priscilla W. Ingram

Introduction

October 3, 1977

Some updating April 8, 1991

My transcription of a 1890 letter from Julia Belle RITCH, aged 17, to my grandmother Ida RITCH, aged 18. It was transcribed in October. A copy of the one-act letter is also enclosed.

Because the original may be used, I tried to keep to the exact wording and a few misspellings in my transcription. This makes for a more complicated and unwieldy read. I also corrected some spelling errors (I can do this of course because I wrote the book). I did not correct grammatical errors, though there are very few.

Julia was quite an educated and well rounded. After all this is a quickly written letter by a "teenager" to her sister. Her sister, Ida, would have understood everything and known all of the people mentioned even though Julia is not very fair to us today.

The original of this letter is in very good condition considering that it is 110 years old. It is written on a 10 x 13½ inch sheet of lined ruled paper folded in half. All four of the resulting sides are used.

The script is very neat and legible. Although there are a few places where it is difficult to impossible to decipher a word or meaning with certainty. These places of uncertainty are at the edges of the paper, in the folds of the paper, where the pen pave out of ink, where the pen dropped more ink than necessary, where Julia wrote over a word to correct it and where Julia squeezed a word in by making it so small or through or when she was running out of room.

I came by this letter when my father, Jesse Jones "A. B." INGRAM, died some 26 years ago, in 1964. My Aunt Catherine INGRAM HUFFMAN STEWART, my Uncle Joel THAMES and I, Franklin Webb INGRAM, found it in some boxes in an old-time, large photo album over along with a picture of my Aunt Catherine INGRAM HUFFMAN.

In addition to this letter, we found a number of old photos, greeting cards, news clippings, legal notices, and a 12-page note from Aunt Clarabel, dated Feb. 2, 1922. Most of these items were dredged from various storage and from the roof that covered the inside of the school out in which J. B. lived. The roof was of a kind a wood burning "laundry" stove that J. B. used as a source of heat and for "cooking".

Catherine, Jack, and I put these materials, largely unexamined, in a cardboard box, and I brought them back to Raleigh, NC, with me. It was many months, maybe years, before I opened this box. Certainly, I did not open the box until well after Aunt Catherine's death. Regrettably so, because I never had the opportunity to review the contents with her.

Undoubtedly, Aunt Catherine would have known the identities of all of the people mentioned in this letter and would have known, now, if not all, of the individuals in the photos.

Sometime after Aunt Catherine's death, I started examining the material and became increasingly curious about what I found. Unfortunately, I knew so little at the time about the RITCH/INGRAM families that I had little understanding of what I was seeing. At that point, I packed it all and took it with me to Atlanta, GA, to visit my father's first cousin Elizabeth RITCH McCUTCHEN.

Elizabeth was staying in Atlanta at the time with one of her sons. She was, not only, my father's First Cousin, but she had also been my mother's best friend and housemate off and on for a number of years when they were young. During the early 1940's, Elizabeth and her husband shared housing with us.

Elizabeth and I went over everything that I had. She knew some of those mentioned in the letter and guessed at others. She definitely stated that her father, John Frost Ritch, was mentioned. As to the photos, she knew some and guessed at many others.

I gave Elizabeth copies of what she wanted, but I did not ask good questions nor did I take good notes. Nevertheless, I am much indebted to Elizabeth and to my "Cousin" Kenneth "Ken" H. THOMAS, Jr. for the little that I do know about these families even now.

Ken was the first person to whom I showed this letter and Elizabeth was the second. In addition, Ken had fallen into the delightful habit of, from time to time, sending me something he had run across about my INGRAM or RITCH ancestors. One of the things that Ken shared with me made it possible for me to determine the identity of "little sweet Cliff," though Elizabeth had previously correctly speculated that "Cliff" was the "nickname of a girl from Texas."

The annotations of this letter, placed as footnotes, add to its genealogical value; therefore, it is necessary that the "facts" stated in these notes be accurate. If any reader disputes any of these "facts" or can add to them please let me know and I shall correct and expand them for a second distribution to my "INGRAM/RITCH" mailing list.

Finally, at aged 61, I have a great interest in learning what I can, and I hope that those of you who read this 1890 letter and my annotations of it will be generous with me about your own knowledge of the INGRAM/RITCH lines.

1890 Letter from Belle RITCH to Ida RITCH

Hollins, Ala.[1]
Feb. 15th 1890

Dear Ida,[2]

Today is Saturday and I haven't answered your letter that I received last week, fully intended writing the first of the week. But Aunt Sallie[3] sent May[4] and I to the store Sat. and I got me a dress, and we have been busy all the week making it and ironing, so haven't had time to write. I was in a hurry to get it done to wear to the Valentine party at Mr. GODDARD. I will send you a piece of each one of my dresses, I think my red one is so pretty. Aunt Sallie box pleated the skirt, and "I tell you it is a daisy." Know you will think so too when you see me wear it, it cost 25 CTS a yard. Didn't trim it in anything. She fixed the front of the waist like May['s] sateen[5] you saw last Summer, it fits to perfection.

Well Ida I went to the Valentine party. Uncle Jim[6] wouldn't let May and Zaidee[7] go as they are going to school, and their teacher doesn't allow them to attend parties. Didn't want to go much because they couldn't. But I received a note from Mr. Charlie[8] Tuesday eve. I didn't get a single Valentine, there were a great many there. Two of the young men got a comet [comic?] one. When I saw them I thought about that one you sent Marry Lou[9] (sic) and when they got through with the Valentines they wrote all of the boy's names on little strips of paper and the girls the same and put all of the boy's name in a hat and let the girls draw. So the name that you drawed you will have to write them a Valentine, I drew Edd Kennedy and Mr. C.[10] drew mine, but I don't expect to write one. How many did you get?

We don't get lonely a bit-now as Mr. SAMPLE is having a R. R. built and it is right in front of the house and they are putting up a trestle right in front of the gate and they have logs from the gate to the Rpring (sic) [RR Crossing?] so we have to go over them. Will be so glad when they get through. We are going to take a ride when they get through.

I was so sorry to hear of little sweet Cliff[11] having the sore eyes hope that they have gotten well by now. I am almost as anxious to see her as I was before she came from Tex.[12] May and Z[aidee] are so anxious to see her.

Ida, tell None[13] that looks like will (sic) write to her but I will before long. I received a letter from Carrie and Lula and E.[14] last week, was so glad to hear from them and Carrie. I thought that she had forgotten me.

I wrote to Lou[15] last week am expecting a letter every day from him. You said for me to watch out for a letter, but I haven't got one yet.

Aunt Sallie got a letter from Mrs. [or Miss] Leila SMITH[16] this week said that she and Edna[17] had a very narrow escape last Sat. They went to see one of her neighbors and

Hotlins, Ala.[1]
Feb 15th 1890

Dear Ida,[2]

Today is Saturday and I haven't answered your letter that I received last week, I'm intended writing the first of the week. Sis, Aunt Sallie[3] and May[4] and I to the store Sat. and I got me a dress, and we have been busy all the week making it and mending, so haven't had time to write. I was in a hurry to get it done to wear in the Valentine party at Mr. GOODLAND's, I was sorta afraid there is a lot of any diseases, I think my red one is so pretty. Aunt Sallie has pieced me a quilt, and I'll tell you it is a dandy. Know you will think so too when you see it, it cost 25 CTS a yard. Didn't cost it in anything. She lived the front of the house Ella May[5] at home, you see last Summer, it did to perfection.

Well Ida I went to the Valentine party. Think that[6] would I let Ma and Zaddee[7] go as they are going to school and their teacher doesn't allow them to attend parties. Didn't want to go much because they couldn't. But I received a note from Mr. Chester[8] Thursday eve. I didn't get a single Valentine there were a great many there. Two of the young men got a mouse [crack?] eye. When I saw that I thought about that one you sent Mary Lou[9] (the one) when they got through with the Valentines they wrote all of the boy's names on little strips of paper and the girls name and put it of the boy's name in a hat and let the girls draw. So the name that you drew would you will have to write them a Valentine. I drew Dad Kennedy and Mr. C. [illegible] drew mine, but I don't expect to write one. How many did you get?

We don't get having a lot more in Mr. SAMPLE is having a R. Bob and it is right in front of the house and they are putting up a trestle right in front of the gate and they have hog trots the pens to the Kenny (sic) [RK Crossing?] so we have to go over them. Will be so glad when they get through. We are going to take a vote when they get through.

I was to survey to see of little Willie CG[10] having the sore eyes hope that they have gotten well by now. I am alone as anyone to see her as I was before she came from Tex.[11] May and Z(addee) are so anxious to see her.

Ida, tell Nona[12] that Bob's little will (sic) write to her but I will before long. I received a letter from Cassie and Lulu and E.[13] last week, was so glad to hear from them and Carrie I thought that she had forgotten me.

I wrote to Lou[14] last week and expecting a letter every day from her. You said for me to watch out for a letter, but I haven't got one yet.

Aunt Sallie got a letter from Mat. [or Mary] Lola SMITH[15] this week said that she had Idaho had a very narrow escape like Sat. They went to see one of her neighbors and drove a Texas pony and coming on back the horse got frighten and ran away and threw them both out. But said no bones were broken.

Lula and E. wrote that Aunt Emily[18] was sick. Has she got well yet? Aunt Nancy[19] wrote May that Uncle John[20] saw Cousin C.[21] in town. He said that they had been looking for her [Aunt Emily?] to die. Poor soul, I reckon it would be best. Ida, every one here has had the lagrippe.[22] Zaidee has just got well.

Has mama got any little chickens, Aunt Sallie has 18. She has planted part of her garden.

Ida I would like the best in the world to see my Donie, "Cliffs Uncle Sea[b"].[23] Was so sorry to hear of Seab H.[24] misfortune. Know Annie[25] was sad.

And you said that you had had your picture taken. Wish I could have been there and had mine too. "I would have just set it off."

Ida you said for me to come home in about two weeks, but papa said for me to stay until he wrote for me to come and I saw in the paper that the G. M. Schedule had changed so he will [have] to write me all about it, but I hope he won't write soon senas (sic) [seeing as?] Aunt Sallie says for me to stay and they would come home with me.

Well as I am out of news will have to bring this scribbling to a close. Kiss sweet little John[26] for me. Love to all except a cart load for yourself. Write soon.

Your Sister

Belle RITCH

P.S. Zaidee said tell U. [N.?][27] that she can't write this time but will next.

Ida I can't find a piece of my Gingham but is nearly like U. [N.?] last one. Write me about all of the folks, especially xxxx.[28] [29]

Footnotes to Belle RITCH's 1890 Letter to Ida RITCH

[1] Hollins, Alabama still exists and a railroad track still runs through the middle of it, but it appears to be a town that "time forgot." For example, when I did a "people finder" search on the Internet, there were less than 50 families listed as having addresses in Hollins.

Hollins is located off US 280 somewhere between Alexander City and Sylacauga, AL. US 280 runs from Columbus, GA, through Opelika, AL, to Sylacauga, AL.

[2] I assume that Belle is the Julia Belle RITCH buried in the RITCH Cemetery, #38, Ft. Benning Reservation. She was born Feb. 14, 1873, and she died Dec. 9, 1893. It is interesting to note that Belle did not mention her birthday, even though she had just turned 17 the day before she wrote this letter. She died a little less than four years later, at the age of 20.

Belle wrote this letter to her sister, my Grandmother Ida Blanche RITCH, when Ida was 18. Ida was born Jul. 17, 1871, and died Jan. 13, 1946. She married Jefferson Franklin INGRAM about 1890.

Ida and Belle are the daughters of Thomas Jefferson RITCH and Julia Amanda HARRIS RITCH. Thomas Jefferson was born about 1840 and Julia Amanda was born about 1845. They were married about Nov. 18, 1866. Nov. 18, 1866, is the date written in pencil on the back of one copy of their picture. It is possible that the day is 10 not 18 because the 8 is not clear.

[3] Aunt Sallie is Sarah "Sallie" JOHNSON RITCH and the wife of James "Jimmie" Heard RITCH. I assume that she is the Sarah Ann RITCH buried in the RITCH Cemetery, #38, Ft. Benning Reservation. She was born Nov. 11, 1844, and died May 9, 1924.

[4] I assume that May is the daughter of Aunt Sallie and Uncle Jim RITCH. I further assume that she is the Leila M. AKIN buried in the RITCH Cemetery, #38, Ft. Benning Reservation. She was born May 9, 1875, and died Jul. 12, 1899. She would have been 14 at the time this letter is written and only 24 at the time of her death.

[5] I assume that "like May sateen you saw last summer" should be "like May's Sateen…" and refers to a dress that May had made out of sateen. However, this explanation directly implies that Ida and May had been together during the summer of 1889, unless, of course, Belle is speaking about another May.

Sateen, sometimes spelled satine, is defined by Webster's as "a smooth durable lustrous fabric usually made of cotton in satin weave in various weights for fine and work clothing, curtains, and linings."

[6] Uncle Jim is James "Jimmie" Heard RITCH. He is Aunt Sallie's husband and the brother of Thomas Jefferson RITCH. He is buried in the RITCH Cemetery, #38, Ft. Benning Reservation. He was born Aug. 13, 1848, and died Jan. 6, 1918.

[7] I assume that Zaidee is the daughter of Uncle Jim and Aunt Sallie RITCH. Is she the Zaidee G. RITCH that later married Charles F. AKEN? What are the dates of Zaidee's birth, death, and marriage?

[1] Hollins, Alabama is a small town and a railroad track still runs through it's middle of it, but it appears to be a town that "time forgot." For example, when I did a "people finder" search on the Internet, there were less than 50 families listed as having addresses in Hollins.

Hollins is located on US 280 somewhere between Alexander City and Sylacauga, AL. US 280 runs from Columbus, GA, through Opelika, AL, to Sylacauga, AL.

[2] I assume that Idella is the lady Idella RITCH buried in the RITCH Cemetery, #18, Ft. Fleming Reservation. She was born Feb. 14, 1877, and she died Dec. 9, 1893. It is interesting to see that Idella did not mention her birthday, even though she had just turned 17 the day before she wrote this letter. She died a little less than four years later, at the age of 20.

Idella wrote this letter to her sister, Ida Christmann Ida Idaville RITCH, when Ida was 18. Ida was born Jul. 17, 1871, and died Jan. 12, 1946. She married Jefferson Franklin DOGRAM about 1890.

Ida and Idella's is the daughter of Thomas Jefferson RITCH and Julia Amanda TIMMIE RITCH. Thomas Jefferson was born about 1840 and Julia Amanda was born about 1845. They were married about Mar. 18, June, Nov. 13, 1866 is the date written in pencil on the back of one of their photos. It is possible that the day is 10 not 13 because the 8 is not clear.

Also Sallie is Sarah "Sadie" JOHNSON RITCH and the wife of James "Jimmie" Irvind RITCH. I assume that she is the Sarah Ann RITCH buried in the RITCH Cemetery, #18, Ft. Fleming Reservation. She was born Nov. 11, 1844, and died May 11, 1924.

I assume that May is the twin sister of Anna Sallie and Uncle Jim RITCH. I further assume that she is the Lydia M. MAY buried in the RITCH Cemetery, #28, Ft. Fleming Reservation. She was born May 9, 1875, and died Jul. 15, 1899. She would have been 14 when this letter is written, and only 24 at the time of her death.

I assume that "Ma May" is her mother, who was last married "around the "like May's Saturn and refers to a time that May had made one of seven. However, the explanation directly implies that Ida and May had been together during the summer of 1888, unless, of course, Idella is speaking about another May.

Seven, sometimes spelled sevene, is defined in Webster's as "a smooth durable linen fabric usually made of cotton in satin weave in various weights for use and work clothing, curtains, and lining."

[3] Uncle Jim is James "Jimmie" Irvind RITCH. He is Aunt Sallie's husband and the brother of Thomas Jefferson RITCH. He is buried in the RITCH Cemetery, #28, Ft. Fleming Reservation. He was born Aug. 13, 1843, and died Jan. 6, 1918.

I assume that Zadie is the daughter of Uncle Jim and Aunt Sallie RITCH. Is she the Zadie G. RITCH that later married Charles F. AGKEN? What are the dates of Zadie's birth, death and marriage?

[8] Mr. Charlie is probably Charles "Charlie" F. AKEN who later married Zaidee. My interpretation is that his letter to Belle influenced her decision to go to the Valentine Party. However, it is also possible that this Mr. Charlie is the father of the two AKIN brothers who later married May and Zaidee or is some other now unknown person.

[9] Who is Marry Lou?

[10] Mr. C. is presumed to be Charles "Charlie" F. AKIN. (See Footnote 8 above.) It is certain that Mr. C., in this context, is a young man who would be close to Belle's age.

[11] I assume that the Cliff whom Belle referenced here is Clifford Allene BOSWELL, the approximately two year old daughter of her sister Nona RITCH BOSWELL. Of course, I believe that Belle and Ida had a younger brother called Cliff, usually listed as C. H. RITCH.

[12] Who is referenced here is not stated, but it is most certainly Belle and Ida's older sister, Nona, and her approximately two year old daughter, Clifford "Cliff" Allene BOSWELL. From what is said in the letter, Nona was close enough for Ida to give her a message.

In 1888, approximately two years before Belle's letter, Nona gave birth to her daughter, Clifford Allene BOSWELL, in Mansfield, Tarrant, Texas. Nona must have already returned from Texas with her young child.

This explanation would account for Belle's excitement about seeing the referenced person again and for Belle's concern about "little sweet Cliff having the sore eyes."

It is interesting to note that, Belle and Ida RITCH'S older brother Alonza E. "Lon" RITCH went to Texas. Did Nona's being in Texas to give birth to her first child have anything to do with Lon's being in Texas also?

[13] Nona is the sister of Ida and Belle RITCH. Belle spells it None in this letter. Belle sometimes wrote e instead of a in other words, such as, enything. Is Nona's full name, Nona Thomas RITCH? My information is that Nona was born about 1868 and married Daniel Evans BOSWELL, of Harris Co., GA, in 1887. Shortly thereafter, in 1888, Nona gave birth to her daughter, Clifford Allene BOSWELL, in Mansfield, Tarrant, Texas.

Nona would have been about 21 or 22 years old at the time Belle wrote this letter.

[14] Who are Carrie, Lula, and E.? I presume that Belle is referencing two different letters here. One from Carrie and one from Lula and E. See later where Belle speaks of hearing from Lula and E.

[15] Who is Lou?

[16] I assume that Aunt Leila SMITH is Aunt Sallie's sister and the presumed namesake of Leila May RITCH. Is SMITH her married name or her maiden name? Do I have the Leila May RITCH connection correct?

[17] Who is Edna?

[18] Who is Aunt Emily?

Mr. Charlie is probably Charles "Charlie" T. ARKIN who later married Zaidee. My interpretation is that Mr. Belle's letter influenced her decision to go to the Valentine Party. However, it is also possible that this Mr. Charlie is the father of the two ARKIN brothers who later married May and Zaidee or is some other now unknown person.

Who is Mary Lou?

Mr. C. is presumed to be Charles "Charlie" T. ARKIN. (See Footnote 5 above.) It is certain that Mr. C., in this context, is a young man who would be close to Belle's age.

I assume that the CRT whom Belle referenced here is Clifford Allene BOSWELL, the approximately two year old daughter of her sister Nona RITCH BOSWELL. Of course, I believe that Belle and Ella had a younger brother called Clif, usually listed as C. H. RITCH.

While it rarely occurred here as we read, but it is most certainly Belle and Ella's older sister, Nona, and her accompanying two year old daughter, Clifford "Clif" Allene BOSWELL. From what is said in the letter, Nona was close enough for Ella to give her a message.

In 1884, approximately two years before Belle's letter, Nona gave birth to her daughter, Clifford Allene BOSWELL, in Mansfield, Texas. Texas must have already returned from Texas with her young child.

This pregnancy would account for Belle's confusion about seeing the referenced person again and for Belle's concern about "little eyes" Clif having the same eyes.

It is interesting to note that Belle and her BUTCH's other brother Alberta R. "Al" RITCH went to Texas. Did Nona's being so close to Texas to give birth to her first child have anything to do with Lou's being in Texas also?

Nona is the sister of Ella and Belle RITCH. Belle spells it Nona in the letter. Belle mentions weeks prior and a few other weeks such as previous. If Nona's full name, Nona Thomas RITCH, was incorrect in this Nona was born about 1864 and married Daniel Evans BOSWELL, of Harris Co., GA, in 1882. Shortly thereafter, in 1884, Nona gave birth to her daughter, Clifford Allene BOSWELL, in Mansfield, Texas.

Nona would have been about 21 or 22 years old at the time Belle wrote this letter.

Who are Corrie, Lula, and E.? I presume that Belle is referencing two different letters here. One from Corrie and one from Lula and E. See later where Belle speaks of hearing from Lula and E.

Who is Lou?

I assume that Aunt Lula SMITH is Aunt Sallie's sister and the preferred nickname of Lucia May RITCH. Is SMITH her married name or her maiden name? Do I have the Lucia May RITCH connection correct?

Who is Eldon?

Who is Aunt Emily?

[19] Aunt Nancy is presumed to be Nancy A. RITCH, sister of James "Uncle Jim" H. RITCH and Thomas Jefferson RITCH. She is buried in the RITCH Cemetery, #38, Ft. Benning Reservation. She was born Jan. 24, 1839, and died Jul 1, 1909.

She is one of six sisters of James Heard and Thomas Jefferson RITCH who never married and who are all buried in the RITCH Cemetery, #38, Ft. Benning Reservation. All six have identical tombstones shaped somewhat like the Washington Monument.

[20] Uncle John is presumed to be John F. RITCH, the brother of Uncle Jim and Thomas Jefferson RITCH. I assume that he is the John F. RITCH buried in the RITCH Cemetery, #38, Ft. Benning Reservation. He was born Oct. 21, 1854, and died May 7, 1915.

[21] Who is Cousin C.

[22] Note: "la grippe" is defined in Webster's as "grippe." Webster's then states that "grippe" is "identical with or resembles influenza."

[23] Who are "my Donie" and Cliffs Uncle Seab in this context? The writing here is not clear. I may have misspelled "Donie," and the word "Sea__" is crowded and discolored. Elizabeth McCUTCHEN speculated that the name was "Dorrie," but she did not know who the specific individuals referenced here were.

Is this Cliff Nona's daughter, Belle and Ida's brother, or another now unknown person? Who is Uncle Sea__? Does Belle mean that Donie is referred to as Cliff's Uncle Sea__? My own belief is that Donie is affectionately nicknamed "Cliff's Uncle Sea__," and that Cliff is Nona's daughter [24] Who is Seab H.? Is this person the same as the one referenced earlier in the letter as "Donie, Cliffs Uncle Sea__"?

[25] Who is Annie?

[26] John is presumed to be the father of Elizabeth RITCH McCUTCHEN and the younger brother of Ida and Belle RITCH. He married Pearl TAFF [?]. My knowledge is very inadequate here, but Elizabeth McCUTCHEN did state to me that her father was mentioned in the letter. I have always assumed that it was this John that Elizabeth had in mind.

[27] It is impossible for me to make out what Belle wrote here. My guess is that it is an U or a N and that it is her shorthand for "your" or for "Nona." Belle did the same thing in the next line, and I assume that it stands for either "your" or "Nona" there also.

[28] Belle wrote a name here and then scratched it out, or perhaps someone else scratched it out later. The color of the ink that covers the name looks slightly different than the ink used to write the original, although the ink of this entire last line is faded and discolored.

[29] Note: Elizabeth McCUTCHEN speculated that Clara GILMORE, niece of Jane GILMORE, is referenced in this letter, but I forget what made her think so.

Aunt Nancy is presumed to be Nancy A. RITCH, sister of Nancy "Uncle Jim" H. RITCH and Thomas Jefferson RITCH. She is buried in the RITCH Cemetery, #18, Fr. Dunning Reservation. She was born Jan. 30, 1829, and died Jul 1, 1909.

She is one of six sisters of James Theed and Thomas Jefferson RITCH who never married and who are all buried in the RITCH Cemetery, #18, Fr. Dunning Reservation. All six have identical headstones, shaped somewhat like the Washington Monument.

Uncle Jim is presumed to be John F. RITCH, the brother of Uncle Jim and Thomas Jefferson RITCH. I assume that he is the John F. RITCH buried in the RITCH Cemetery, #18, Fr. Dunning Reservation. He was born Oct. 31, 1834, and died May 7, 1915.

Who is Cousin C.

Note: "Ye gypsy" is a fable in Webster's as "gypsy." Webster's then states that "gypsy" is "idiomatic with or resembling idiomatic."

Who are "my Jenny" and Cliff's Uncle Sam in this context? The writing here is not clear. I was tempted to read "Jenny," and the word "Jim," "idiomatic" and "Jenny." Elizabeth McCLUTCHEN speculated that the name was "Donna," but she did not know who the specific in Webster's references were.

Is this Cliff Mann's brother, Uncle and Dad's brother, or another now unknown person? What is Uncle Sam's Dad's name? Does Dad mean that Dennis is referred to as Cliff's Uncle Sam? My own belief is that Dennis is also curiously referred to "Cliff's Uncle Sam" and that Cliff is Dennis's cousin.

Who is Sled Ed? Is this person the same as the one referred to earlier in the letter as "Dennis Cliff's Uncle Sam?"

Who is Annie?

John is presumed to be the father of Dorothea RITCH McCLUTCHEN and the younger brother of the said Belle RITCH. He was called Paul TATE [?]. My knowledge is very inadequate here, but Elizabeth McCLUTCHEN did agree to me that the father was mentioned in the letter. I have always assumed that it was the John that Elizabeth had in mind.

It is impossible for me to make out what Belle wrote here. My guess is that it is an O or a N and that it is her abbreviated for "your" or for "Mom." Belle did the same thing in the previous line, and I assume that it stands for "dear," "your" or "Mom" there also.

Belle wrote a name here and then scratched it out, or perhaps someone else scratched it out later. The color of the ink that covers the name looks slightly different than the ink used to write the original. Although the ink of this entire line is faded and discolored.

Note: Elizabeth McCLUTCHEN speculated that Clara Gill MORR, niece of Jane GILMORE, is referenced in this letter, but I forget what made her think so.

Dear Mrs. Jordan:

Received your letter of 10 October just yesterday --guess it was held up because no zip code on it. Anyway, I have reproduced a copy of the pages of my records that bear the names of RITCH and SNELLINGS. The "RITCH" cemetery is known as cemetery 9, and the SNELLINGS cemetery is known as cemetery 10.

Yes, by all means, you may visit the gravesites at any time you choose. The only requirement is that you clear with Range Division so that you do not enter an area where live firing is being conducted. To clear, you can report to Building 215 and ask to see the clearance map. Someone there will advise you when to enter the areas.

Please keep both my home telephone number (564-7030 -- just in case you arrive on a weekend) and my office telephone number (545-7533 -- where I can be reached during normal duty hours) for contact when you arrive. I will be delighted at any time to come help you locate the gravesites. If I can help you in any way, please feel free to call on me.

Sincerely,

ELSIE W. HIGHT

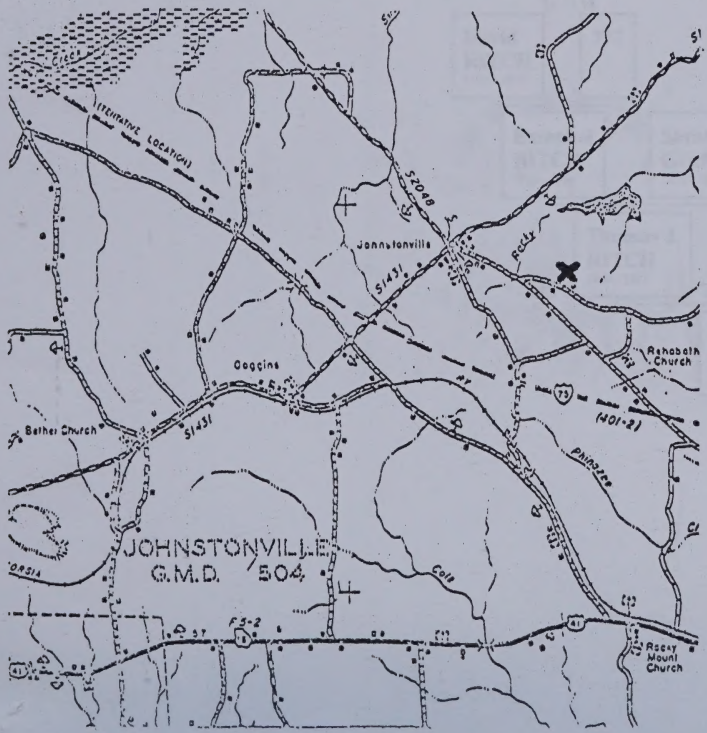
PITT MILNER'S HOUSE AND CEMETERY, Lamar Co.,Ga.



MILNER FAMILY GRAVES

Mr. Homer C. Cooper, 145 Pendleton Drive, Athens, Ga. 30601 has contributed the inscriptions of tombstones found in two Milner cemeteries, together with more data on APSILLA or APSYLLA HOLMES MILNER. He noted that although the tombstone and her will spell her name Apsylla, the obituary and the family Bible record the spelling Apsilla.
Following the death of her husband PITT MILNER in 1839 in Monroe Co.,Ga. (now Lamar), Apsilla Holmes Milner moved to Henry County, Ga. to live with her daughter PENELOPE MILNER, wife of PARKER EASON (1798-1875). Mr. Cooper wondered why no gravestone for Penelope M. Eason was found beside the gravestone of Parker Eason. Does anyone know? Did Penelope survive her husband and move elsewhere, where she died?
Mr. Cooper transcribed the inscription of the Pitt Milner stone June 22, 1969, and Mr. John Holmes Milner transcribed the stones in the Eason cemetery in 1965. A report made by relatives at the Milner reunion told that the marker for Apsilla Milner was missing from the cemetery in 1969, and the lot was covered by brush. Because family graveyards are usually hard to find, we are including the map locations as a permanent record, to enable others to locate these graveyards in the future.
